2. "Has the Official Board of a station the right or power to transfer the public services from the place of worship within a station, to which they have been brought by a majority vote of the members of the Society?" Decision of P. E.: "In my judgment it has not." Decision affirmed by Bishop Janes.

Bishop Janes decided the following question, at the request of the Conference:

REPORTS.

I. REPORT ON THE CHRISTIAN COMMISSION.

The Christian Commission has already become a power for good. Embracing, as it does, a larger field than any other; proposing to do good both to the souls and bodies of our brave soldiers, it particularly commends itself to the sympathies of every patriotic Christian.

It has been a glorious success thus far, and the untold amount of good it has accomplished is a subject of devout thanksgiving to Almighty God. But it is evident that as the field of labor of this Commission enlarges, its means must increase. How shall this increased demand upon its treasury be met? The loyal ladies of Philadelphia have endeavored in part to answer this question. In May last a large number of them met, and after much deliberation, recommended a plan which it is hoped will secure the co-operation of every loyal lady in the North. This plan is nothing less than the formation of Ladies' Christian Commissions in every congregation in our land. In this way more than a million in money may be secured. For details we refer you to the circulars and appeals of the Commission.

The pastors of the various congregations are charged with seeing that these plans are carried out. We therefore recommend the following, not only for adoption, but for execution:

1. Resolved, That the Christian Commission has the highest claims upon the Christian portion of our people.

2. Resolved, That each member of this Conference be respectfully requested, at his earliest convenience, to bring this subject before the people of his charge, and procure their prompt consideration.

3. Resolved, That we recommend to each Church to grant their pastor leave of absence during the year, where at all practicable, to labor six weeks in the Commission.

W. DENNETT, Chairman.

II. REPORT ON THE BIBLE CAUSE.

Believing that the free circulation of the Scriptures among the masses is of the utmost importance, and the only permanent foundation of our free institutions; and that the American Bible Society has done more to circulate the Scriptures among the people of this country than all other agencies;

1. Therefore, Resolved, That we have unshaken confidence in the wisdom and management of the American Bible Society.

2. Resolved, That we will assist the auxiliary societies in raising funds, and cordially invite the agent to visit our fields of labor, and should he fail, we will take collections for the Bible Society ourselves.

3. Resolved, That the regular and daily study of the Scriptures should be encouraged among all classes, and the reading of the Bible ought not to be omitted in our Public Schools.

4. Resolved, That in the judgment of this Conference, Iowa is too large a field for one Agent; and we therefore request the managers of the American Bible Society to appoint an additional Agent.

5. Resolved, That we request the Agent to receipt for the amount received from our several charges.

6. Resolved, That we request the Bishop to continue Rev. S. Reynolds as Agent of the American Bible Society.

W. F. COWLES, Chairman.

Rev. S. Reynolds stated that the aggregate Bible collections in the Conference were:

Reported in statistics.....$335.55

Reported in cash..... 70.60

Total..... $406.15

III. REPORT ON PERIODICALS

The Committee on Periodicals report that both the weekly and monthly issues have been attended with such success as scarcely to need formal approval. Their position is second only in usefulness to the pulpit; and they should receive the support of every lover of piety and intelligence.

The Committee heartily approve the radical policy of the Editors, and are pleased that our periodicals are in the front rank of all the great reformatory movements of the age. They fully appreciate the lasting benefit they have conferred on the church and country by their uncompromising loyalty and opposition to slavery.

They are aware of the importance of the position of the Central Christian Advocate; and, in their judgment, every possible effort should be made to sustain it.

They offer the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we continue the Central Christian Advocate as our Conference paper, and we will use every possible effort to extend its patronage until Central Christian Advocate.

2. Resolved, That we approve the action of the General Conference in enlarging the paper, and in establishing a Book Depository in St. Louis.

3. Resolved, That we heartily approve of the election of Dr. Crary to the Editorship of the Central, and we will faithfully sustain him in the discharge of his arduous duties.

4. Resolved, That we, as ministers, pledge ourselves to present the claims of the soldiers to our congregations, and will endeavor to induce them to sub- Papers for the Soldiers.

THOMAS AUDAS, Chairman.

IV. REPORT ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Committee recognize the Sunday School cause as among the most important auxiliaries upon which the church depends in her efforts to extend the Redeemer's Kingdom.

1. Therefore, Resolved, That we will be more diligent in our efforts to establish Sunday schools in such localities as are now destitute.

2. Resolved, That so far as practicable we will meet with and labor for the interests of the Sabbath schools of our several churches.

3. Resolved, That we will present to our congregations the claims of the Sunday School Union, and labor to increase our collections for the ensuing year.

J. W. LATHAM, Chairman.

church now standing in Iowa; 3d, Interesting letters from Bishop Morris, respecting the first organization of the work in Iowa, and from Dr. Wm. R. Ross, the first leader in Burlington. He has also instituted correspondence with several of the pioneers of Iowa Methodism, and hopes for valuable information from them.

He submits the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we approve of the collection of materials for a history of the M. E. Church in the Iowa Conference.
2. Resolved, That a committee of one from each District be appointed to assist the Secretary in the collection of historical information.
3. Resolved, That it shall be the duty of each preacher to obtain all the information he can respecting the history of his charge, and furnish it to the Secretary; and to see to the collection and preservation of all the old record, class and other books of the circuits and stations, which shall be placed in the care of the Recording Steward of each charge.
4. Resolved, That we invite our ministerial and lay brethren, who may possess information of general interest respecting Iowa Methodism, to communicate the same to the Secretary, or send it for publication to the Central Christian Advocate.
5. Resolved, That we request the Editor of the Central to allow the use of his columns for the publication of such items of our Conference history as may be furnished to him for that purpose.

E. H. WARING, Committee.

VI. REPORT ON EDUCATION.

The Committee report the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That every member of this Conference be instructed to present, to the College Collections. best of his ability, in each congregation of his work, the condition of the Iowa Wesleyan University, as early as practicable, and take up a collection therein to assist in defraying the current expenses of the University, for the collegiate year, 1864-65, and that he raise, if possible, an amount equal to an average of ten cents on the membership of his charge, and that he pay the amount collected to the Treasurer or Agent of the University: Provided that, should he fail, after his best effort to collect such average, he will not be held personally responsible for the amount.

2. Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to distribute the amount necessary to meet the Current Expenses of the University among the several Current Expenses. charges of this Conference, according to their best judgment of their numbers, ability and location.

3. Resolved, That it shall be the duty of each preacher of this Conference to raise the amount thus assessed to his charge; one half to be secured and paid over to the College Agent by the first day of January next, and the remainder by the first day of next May.

4. Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the presiding elders to see that the above resolutions are carried out in the several charges of their respective districts, and to assist in carrying out the same.

J. H. Power, D. D., as a Visitor to the Garrett Biblical Institute for this year.

VII. REPORT ON MINISTERIAL SUPPORT.

Your Committee to whom was referred the subject of ministerial support would offer the following facts, to be laid before all our quarterly conferences by the P. E.'s, at their first round of quarterly meetings, and urge them upon their consideration in fixing the allowance of the ministers in their respective charges.

1. The expense of living, including all the necessities of life, as well as the luxuries, is at least double what it has been in former years.

2. That the salaries of the preachers have not been on an average more than enough for a comfortable support at former prices of living.

3. That unless the salaries of the preachers are raised to correspond with the increased prices of living the following calamities will befall the pastors and churches: Those that have means of living outside of their salaries will be compelled to spend it in support of their families while serving the churches, and at the same time those churches increasing in wealth faster than ever before in all their history; and those preachers who have no means of support aside from their salaries will be compelled, with their families, to suffer for the necessities of life, or go in debt for the same with the probability of being embarrassed and hindered in usefulness in all their future ministry, or to avoid these evils they will be compelled to engage in secular business and neglect in whole or in part the regular work of the ministry; and should either of the above mentioned evils become general in the churches the calamity would be incalculable. And we do not believe that the churches would be willing to take the responsibility of bringing these calamities upon the pastors and churches if properly instructed in their duties to render a just and comfortable support to them who labor for their salvation. We therefore urge upon all our churches a careful and conscientious consideration of their duty on the question of the support of their pastors in this time of peril.

W. F. COWLES, Chairman.

VIII. REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

Intemperance is among the leading evils that prevail in society and is a fruitful source of physical, social and moral evil. It is, therefore, the imperative duty of every Christian minister to bear faithful testimony against it. We recommend the following resolution:

Resolved, That we will preach or lecture on temperance as opportunity may present.

JOHN DARRAH, Chairman.

IX. REPORT ON THE TRACT CAUSE.

Your Committee admire the wisdom of Mr. Wesley in employing this means of disseminating a sanctified literature. By means of the Tract Cause the evils of a light and trashy literature, which now floods the country, may be, to a great extent, counteracted. The claims of the cause are greatly augmented by the peculiar circumstances of the country. Tracts furnish useful and instructive reading to many of the hundreds of thousands who are now on the battle field, in the navy, in camps, or in our hospitals, deprived of the ordinary means of grace; and, to a great extent, of good sound reading matter. We offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That our preachers be requested to take up in November or December a collection for the Tract Cause, and forward the same to the Parent Society, with such suggestions as to its use as they may deem proper.

HUGH GIBSON, Chairman.

X. REPORT ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

In looking over the past year we find reason for thankfulness for the peace and prosperity enjoyed by our Church. Revivals have not been as general as in some previous years; but this does not discourage us. We find reasons for this in the disturbed state of the country. Something has been done in the improvement of our church property and in building churches and parsonages. Church discipline has been too much neglected. We should urge upon our members with great earnestness all the requirements of our Discipline; especially of regular attendance upon class-meetings. To secure uniformity of discipline it is only necessary to follow its directions. We recommend the following resolution:

Resolved, That it is the imperative duty of our pastors and people to abide by our book of Discipline.

O. C. SHELTON, Chairman.

XI. REPORT ON THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

Although the Conference, and all our conferences, Annual and General, have spoken out, unequivocally and unanimously, in favor of the Union, it is, nevertheless, necessary for the Iowa Conference, as well as all the other conferences of the M. E. Church, to continue their united and unanimous testimony, until rebellion shall have been utterly crushed out, and the old Stars and Stripes shall float without a rival flag over every foot of the United States and Territories.

Whatever may be said in relation to other sins which defile the land and call for God's judgments, on Slavery the most criminality rests. Slavery is the cause of the war. Some, we know, are continually charging that anti-slavery men, especially anti-slavery ministers, have been the guilty agents in involving the country in the present troubles. We repel the charge as utterly unfounded. As well might the martyrs of the Church be charged with crime, because they fearlessly proclaimed divine truth. Truth and error, liberty and slavery, are antagonistic principles, proclaim the one and you provoke the other.

What, we ask, would be the situation of our country if anti-slavery men had never made any opposition to the Slave Power? That Power would have continued its usurpations until the whole country would have been crushed under its despotic rule; and should we have had peace down to this moment it would have been the peace of death. It would be peace at the sacrifice of justice, truth and liberty—a peace dictated by the Slave Power, than which death would be a more welcome boon.

Can we make peace by the compromise of truth, justice and liberty? Compromises of this sort, as far as they have been resorted to, have already aggravated the evils complained of rather than warded them off. The principles of secession only pave the way for universal anarchy. Such a course would tear the country into ten thousand fragments. We cannot have peace, then, by compromise.

There is but one other way by which peace can be restored. This rebellion must be put down by the sword, as the instrument which God himself has seen fit to use in numberless cases, and which he requires of Christians to use as the dernier resort in the support of truth, justice and good government. None can supersede the precepts of God and His providential arrangements. Paper manifestoes are of no value at this critical juncture of our national affairs.

The signers of the Declaration of Independence declared, July 4th, 1776, for themselves and their country, to "pledge their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor," to the support of the principles of their Declaration. All truly loyal men do the same at this time. Those who refuse life, property, or honor, in sustaining the Union to the very last, are either steeped in treason, or so grossly ignorant that they give actual aid and comfort to the rebellion, and act against the best interests of the country and of humanity.

It has not been the usage of the M. E. Church, or of her ministers, in their ecclesiastical capacity, to take steps in favor of any mere political party in the contests that have existed on this subject. Our Church will not now commence to depart from this sound Christian policy. But the rebels are not an ordinary political party, just because they are rebels. The distinguished Douglas, just before his death, declared there were only two parties; viz: The Union men and the rebels: and there are only these two now.

But it is needless to enlarge here. We maintain there are only two sides; we mean the truly Union men on one side, and on the other side, the Southern rebels and their allies, made up of such as are calling for an armistice and pleading for peace, until rebels will lay down their arms and submit to the lawful government of the country.

And while we make the foregoing statements, ex animo, we owe it to our God, our country, and our church, to support the Union cause, although at the expense of life, fortune, and honor.

It is with sorrow we survey the carnage and suffering which the rebels have brought on our beloved land. And yet we must be thankful to God for the good that is to follow. The slavery of the colored race in the United States has received its death-blow: the vassalage of the "poor white" must soon cease: and what is still of almost greater value, the vices of the slave-holders themselves will be checked.

God has given the armies of the Union many and signal victories; and the time is not far distant when, under God's Providence, rebellion will be crushed out, and peace will reign throughout the land.

The M. E. Church has peculiar cause of thankfulness. One of the fundamental moral anti-slavery principles was freedom in all cases. In 1784 this was her adopted principle. In 1785 the rule was suspended, owing to the unchristian laws which forbade emancipation. But now, after the lapse of eighty years, God himself has heard the prayers of the Church, and delivered her by his own right hand. Abraham Lincoln, by his constitutional proclamation, as a military necessity, has emancipated the greater number of the slaves. And now our worthy bishops have unanimously decided that the day has come, in which full discipline can be exercised. Surely this was a day of salvation to the M. E. Church, in which she was delivered from bondage under which she groaned for eighty long years.

But why do we dwell on particulars at this time? Let us hasten to renew for ourselves the PLEDGE which the fathers of American Liberty gave, July 4th, 1776.

Resolved, By the Iowa Conference of the M. E. Church in Conference assembled, that we unanimously "pledge our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor" to maintain the Union of all the States and Territories, and to transmit our national inheritance unbroken to our children.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Iowa Conference send a copy of this report to the President of the United States.

CHARLES ELLIOTT, Chairman of Committee.

XII. REPORT ON MISSIONS.

The Committee on Missions reported in favor of continuing Exchange-street, Keokuk, on the list of Missions, with an appropriation of $200.

XIII. REPORT ON OBITUARIES.

1. REV. WILLIAM SIMPSON was born in Huntingdon county, Pa., January 22, 1812. On the 14th day of June, 1832, he was converted to God, and united with the M. E. Church. In the autumn of 1833 he emigrated to Michigan, and located in the town of Centerville, St. Joseph county. While here he served the church as class-leader for nearly three years.

On the 11th day of July, 1836, he was granted license to exhort. About this time he removed to Hennepin, Ill. After spending a few months in that place, he was employed by John Sinclair, P. E., to travel Bureau Circuit as colleague of William Cumming. Upon this circuit he remained until the 2d day of April, when he was transferred to Bloomington Circuit, and became the colleague of John Shepherd.

At a quarterly meeting held in the town of Bloomington, June 3, 1837, he received license to preach, and was also recommended to the traveling connection. At the session of the Illinois Conference, held in Jacksonville, Sept. 27th, of the same year, he was received on trial and appointed to Helena Circuit, Wisconsin Territory. This was a new field. The entire membership consisted of only twenty-six persons, and to add to the discouragements (if I may use that word in connection with pioneer Methodism), the mission committee had made no appropriation for this work. He must depend alone upon the providence of God and the scanty pittance which the early settlers could spare from their own meager supplies. But God took care of him, and made his labors abundantly successful, and supplied all his wants. At the close of this year he traveled four hundred and twenty-five miles to attend his conference, which was held in Alton, Ill. Here he received an appointment to Bellevue Circuit, Iowa Territory.

On the 11th day of September, 1839, at a conference held in Bloomington, Ill., he was ordained deacon by Bishop Morris, and was appointed to Prairie du Chien, Wis. When the Illinois Conference was divided he was placed in the Rock River Conference, and appointed to Lancaster Circuit. In August, 1841, he was ordained elder by Bishop Morris, and appointed to Hamilton Grove.

On the 22d day of February, 1842, he was married to Miss Nancy M. Range, who was indeed a help-meet for him, sharing with most heroic fortitude, and Christian patience and resignation, the toils and privations, and sufferings of pioneer life.

In 1842 he was appointed to Fort Madison Circuit; in 1843 was appointed to West Point Circuit; in 1844 was appointed to Mt. Pleasant Circuit. The Iowa Conference now being organized he became a member of it. In 1845 he was returned to the same circuit; in 1846-7 he traveled the Pleasant Valley Circuit; 1848-9 he traveled the Cedar Circuit. In 1850 he offered himself as a volunteer for Council Bluffs' Mission. The inhabitants of that region were almost entirely Mormons and Indians. Having received his appointment he was soon on his way to his new field of labor, at which he no sooner had arrived than he began to preach Christ and the resurrection. A circuit was soon formed, souls were converted, societies organized, and the solitary place was made glad, and the desert blossomed as the rose. At the close of this year he reported a membership of one hundred and twelve persons in the mission. The following year he was returned to the same work, and again the Lord, in a most gracious manner, owned his labors, so that at the end of the second year his charge contained two hundred and forty members. In 1852 he was appointed to Brighton Circuit; in 1853 to Ft. Madison Station; in 1854 was appointed presiding elder of Montezuma District. In 1855 the Iowa Conference was divided and the Montezuma District was merged into the Oskaloosa District, and upon this district he labored for four succeeding years. In 1859 he was appointed to New London Circuit where he remained two years. In 1862-3 he traveled Agency City Circuit; in the autumn of 1863 he was appointed to Marshall, where, upon the 22d day of February, 1864, he closed his life of ardent toil and abundant success, and calmly fell asleep in the Savior. His illness was brief, extending only from Friday evening until Monday morning. His sufferings were extreme, yet he never complained; not a single murmuring word escaped his lips. His mind was clear and tranquil, and his soul seemed to be calmly enjoying that peace that passes all understanding. His wife, seeing his end approaching, said, "What shall I do when you are gone?" "Trust in Providence," was his reply. She then asked him, "What shall I tell your brethren of the conference?" "Tell them," said he, "that the same gospel which I have preached to others sustains me now." A few hours before his death his pain subsided, and he rested quietly until the time of his departure. Beside his couch stood a few faithful friends who had ministered to him in his affliction, and now waited to witness his triumph in the final hour. Steadily the tide of life was ebbing, and the darkness of the grave was drawing near—his wife and children were the only objects of solicitude now. The great work had already been accomplished, and, like the apostle, he was ready to be offered. Two sons stood upon the battle-field, and three younger members of the family stood beside his bed. Looking upon his wife he said, "Educate those children—train them for God." Feeling now that his hour had come, and that he stood beside the chilling waters, he raised his voice and sung in full melodious strains,

"We'll cross the river of Jordan, Happy in the Lord."

As the sound died away upon the air, the weary wheels of life stood still, the silver cord was loosed and the spirit returned to God who gave it.

Thus passed away from earth one of God's noblemen, who, in an early day, raised the standard of the cross and bore it in triumph upon the battle-fields of Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois and Iowa, and in the face of Mormon, Infidel and Indian, declared the whole counsel of God, giving to saint and sinner their portion in due season.

THOS. E. CORKHILL.

2. Rev. MANNASEH B. WAYMAN was born in Marshall county, Western Virginia, April 9th, 1836. Through the pious examples and teachings of godly parents he was happily converted to God in the year 1850, when about fourteen years of age, and but some eighteen days prior to the death of his devoted father, for whom he entertained the highest regard. When about eighteen years of age he was licensed to exhort in the M. E. Church, without his knowledge or consent, in which capacity he labored with great zeal and faithfulness. The spring following he moved to Morgan county, Ohio, where he engaged in teaching school, and continued two years in the same place. He was licensed as a local preacher in 1857. In April, 1858, he came to Burlington, Iowa; and in the fall of that year, being duly recommended by his quarterly conference, he was received into the Iowa Conference. Bro. Wayman's first appointment was Augusta circuit, with Rev. J. G. Thompson in charge. Here, by his urbanity of manners, his fervent piety, and indefatigable labors, he not only gathered around him a large circle of warm friends, but was instrumental in leading many souls to Christ, and in building up believers in the faith of the gospel. He was appointed in 1859-60 to Toolsboro Circuit. Here he was called to endure very sore trials, but through the grace of God he triumphed. At the close of the year he graduated to Deacon's orders. In 1860-61 he was appointed to West Point and Denmark, with Rev. A. C. Williams in charge. Here he had many seals to his ministry. On the 19th of August, 1861, he was united in marriage to Miss Olive G. Maynard. In 1862-63 he was appointed to the Bloomfield Circuit, where he labored zealously and with success; and was reappointed to the same charge in 1862-63. At the conference of 1862 he was ordained elder, and appointed to Troy circuit. He repaired immediately to his new field and was prosecuting his work with his accustomed zeal and energy when he received an appointment to the chaplaincy of the 3d Iowa Cavalry. He at once resigned his charge and repaired to his regiment, which was then at Memphis, Tenn. Here by his piety, excellent social qualities, and earnest labors in preaching to the soldiers and imparting wholesome counsel to the sick and dying, he greatly endeared himself to his Regiment; but in the midst of his labors and usefulness, he was seized by that fatal disease, camp diarrhea. The disease being at first of a mild form, he continued with his regiment, and labored as he had strength until the latter part of June, when his condition became very critical, and he obtained a furlough, and started home. He directed his friends to bring him without stopping on the way. He reached his family, who were at his father-in-law's, Dr. Maynard's, on Wednesday evening, almost in a state of unconsciousness, barely recognizing his wife and little daughter, and too far exhausted to converse. He lingered until Saturday the 2d of July, when he calmly fell asleep in Jesus; a smile resting upon his countenance after the spirit had departed.

"Servant of God, well done;
The glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the victory won,
And thou art crowned at last."

A. ROBINSON.

3. ISAAC INGERSOLL STEWART, was born near Absecom, New Jersey, August 4th, 1806. At the age of twelve years he moved with his parents to Mt. Carmel, Ill., in which place he was converted to God, and joined the M. E. Church, at the age of 15. He was licensed to preach in 1836; and at the same quarterly conference was recommended to the traveling connection. The same year he was received on trial by the Illinois Conference. In 1838 he was ordained deacon by Bishop Soule; and in 1840 he was ordained elder by Bishop Waugh.

The following are the appointments which he filled: in 1836, Paris circuit; 1837, Hillsboro and Vandalia circuit; 1838, Platteville, Wisconsin Territory; 1839, Dubuque, Iowa Territory, all in the Illinois Conference; in 1840 he fell into the Rock River Conference, and was sent to Burlington, Iowa; 1841, Burlington; 1842 and 1843, Mt. Pleasant circuit. In 1844 he fell into the Iowa Conference, then organized, and was sent to Ft. Madison; 1845 and 1846, Dubuque; 1847 and 1848, Des Moines District; 1849 and 1851, inclusive, Burlington District; 1852 and 1853, Agent of Mt. Pleasant Collegiate Institute; 1854 and 1855, Oskaloosa; 1856, Knoxville; 1857, Oskaloosa, supernumerary; 1858, Eddyville circuit; 1859, Council Bluffs District. In 1860 he fell, by the division of the Conference, into the Western Iowa Conference; but was transferred at the first session of that Conference to the Iowa Conference, and sent to Pella circuit; 1861, Indianapolis circuit; 1862, superannuated; 1863, Post Chaplain to Keokuk Military Hospital.

In this appointment he closed his earthly labors in blissful hope of a glorious immortality August 15th, 1864. It was the privilege of Bro. Stewart to spend a large portion of his ministry as a pioneer among the early settlements of the Northwest, to thread his way across the prairies, guided by the Indian trails, and to plant the standard of the cross at the door of the cabin of the new settler ere the mud had dried upon its walls. It was his lot not to reap where other men had sowed, but to break up the fallow ground and sow abroad the good seed of the kingdom of Christ.

In this work he often "went forth weeping," and we doubt not but in the day of final account he will "come again rejoicing," bringing "many sheaves with him." On the last Sabbath but one which he spent on earth, he preached twice, with unusual power and liberty. The last week of his life was one of uncommon serenity of mind and sweet communion with Christ. Often did he break forth in exclamations of praise and thanksgiving to God for the uninterrupted peace and holy triumph which he was permitted to enjoy. On the morning of his death he joyfully sang,

"Come, thou fount of every blessing,
Tune my heart to sing thy praise."

And thus has passed from labor to reward our brother and fellow laborer. May we, like him, finish our course with joy.

D. WORTHINGTON.

LIST OF LOCAL PREACHERS.

N. B. The table is very imperfect, but as complete as the information at hand enabled it to be made. The statistics show that there are one hundred and ninety-six local preachers in the Conference; but there are only one hundred and forty enumerated in this list, leaving fifty-six unreported here; and it is feared that some of the names are incorrect. Let us have a perfect list next year, brethren.

In the column captioned "Relation," L. stands for Licentiate, D. for Deacon, and E. for Elder.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE IOWA CONFERENCE MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

BRETHREN OF THE IOWA CONFERENCE MISSIONARY SOCIETY:

God's divine truth, like a mighty wedge, has gained access into many nations, until its hallowed influence is reforming and redeeming the earth; we hope and pray that the day is not far distant when the Word of Life, God's Bible, shall be possessed by thousands and tens of thousands, where now the darkness of heathenism and superstition reign. We believe our Christ and his kingdom are destined to take the world, and from every land and the isles of the sea the voice of holy song shall ascend and God's name be universally praised. As a Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, one great arm of God's mighty Church, let us pray for liberty and truth to prevail; let us pray for those divine-like principles, which possessed the hearts of our pilgrim fathers, by which they shook off the tyranny of British oppression and planted the standard of freedom over all these lands, which caused the uplifting of our glorious old flag, the Stars and Stripes, the grand precursors of power and liberty opening for us the free and unembarrassed spread of the Holy Scriptures. May we live to see the day when the everlasting gospel shall roll over this vast earth as the waters swell the channels of the deep; when our national ensign, with its majestic folds, shall wave over every nook and crook, every hill and valley, every palace and hamlet of these United States, and our national redemption as well as Christianity triumph. Hail, happy day, when the whole world will be converted to God!

REMARKS.

It is to be regretted that so many preachers neglect making out full missionary reports. Of the seventy-two charges of the Conference, the pastors of thirty-one made no detailed report, and these include the pastors of several of the leading stations of the Conference, and four made no report at all. Come, brethren, listen to the Discipline, and remember that you have agreed "to mind every point, great and small, in the Methodist Discipline!" It says, in the chapter on the support of missions, pp. 231, 232, "Each preacher in charge SHALL (not may) report at Conference, to the Executive Committee, or Board of Managers of the Conference Missionary Society a plain transcript of the records of the returns provided for item nine, comprehending the name of each collector in his charge, and the name, real or assumed, of each contributor to each collector, that they may be by the said Executive Committee, or Board of Managers, properly arranged by districts, and by charges, for publication in the annual report of the Conference Missionary Society; together with the contributions and collections received from other sources, unless the Conference shall by vote declare such transcript returns, and such publication, not to be advisable."

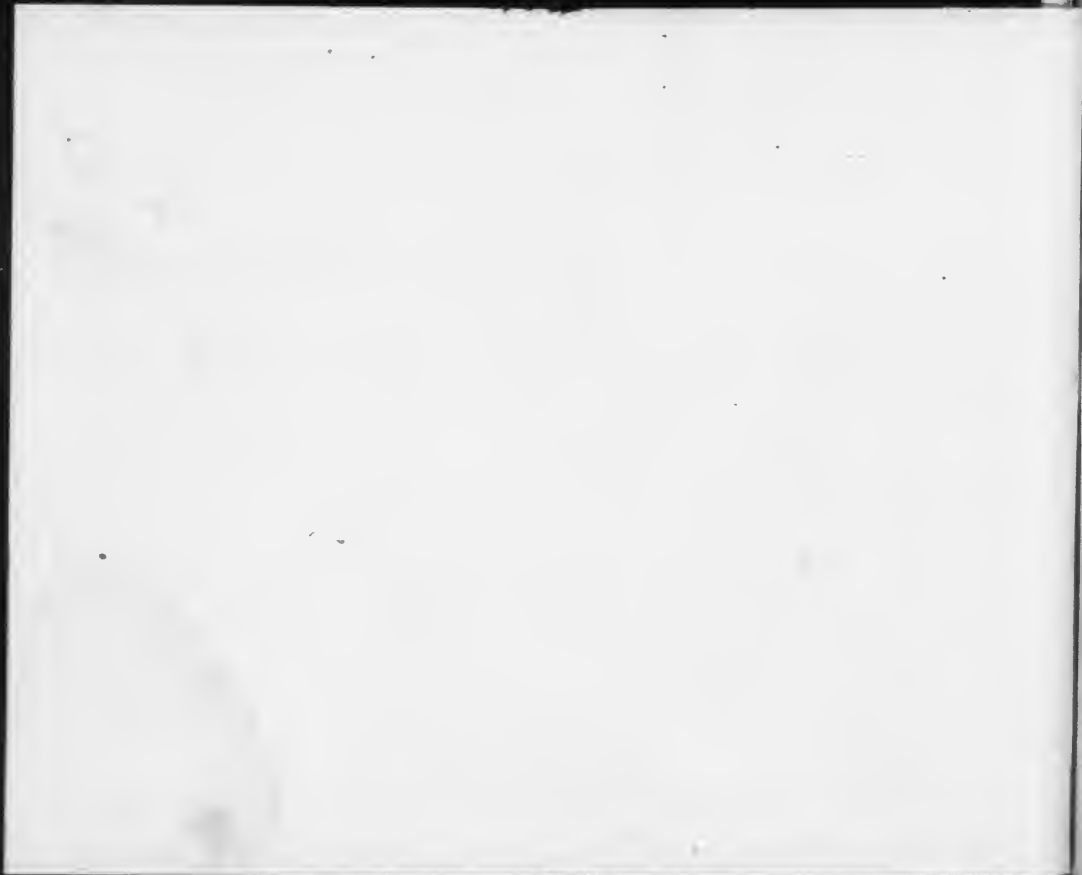

Observe the italicized paragraphs. To assist in obtaining uniform reports, blanks will be furnished the preachers during the present Conference year, for their missionary returns.

We make the following suggestions:

1. Be sure and get the full name of subscribers and life-members. You cannot tell whether "J. Smith" belongs to John, Jonathan, or Jennie. It is no better to write "Brother Wilson," or "Sister Jones."
2. Be careful to obtain the correct spelling of the name. There is a difference between McLain, McClain, McLane, and McLean, and none of the Thompsons are Thomsons.
3. Copy your list of names in a plain hand. It is to be read by others, when you will not be present to correct mistakes.
4. It is usual to distinguish between married and single ladies by using the words "Miss" and "Mrs."
5. See that you obtain the returns from the collectors a sufficient length of time previous to the session of the Conference to allow of your completing and perfecting your report before you start for Conference.
6. Enclose your money in an envelope, separate from your detailed report. Endorse on the outside the name of the charge and district, the amount of missionary money forwarded before Conference, and the amount enclosed, and sign your name to it. Then when the returns are called for, on the first day of the next Conference, hand your detailed report to the Missionary Secretary and your envelope of missionary money to the Missionary Treasurer.
